Customs and Border Protection Officers (CBPOs) were conducting outbound inspections when they stopped a black in color 2015 Nissan Altima bearing Arizona license plate number EKA95G driven by sole occupant Guillermo ACOSTA. ACOSTA is not the registered owner of the vehicle. The CBPO asked ACOSTA if he had any currency over $10,000, weapons, or ammunition to declare to which he denied having any of these items. The CBPO asked ACOSTA where he was going, and he stated he was going to Mexico to meet some clients for his trucking company. A Z-Portal x-ray scan of the vehicle was positive for anomalies in the trunk. CBPOs inspected the vehicle and discovered 1,000 rounds of TELA AMMO 7.62x39 ammunition concealed in a speaker box located inside the trunk. A further inspection of the vehicle resulted in the discovery of one (1) Century Arms AK-47 rifle and one (1) U.S. Palms 7.62x39 magazine concealed under the rear seat. During a post-Miranda statement, ACOSTA initially denied having any knowledge of the weapons and ammunition, however, he later admitted to having financial problems and in need of money. ACOSTA stated he knew he had something but was unsure of what it was. However, when ACOSTA was asked what he thought it was, ACOSTA stated that he believed it was money or weapons. ACOSTA said he was promised $300 for the trip. ACOSTA stated he was approached by a mechanic he knew named Jesus.
